

2009 Opening Doors Small Business Conference

Providing opportunities in a challenging economy.

Los Angeles | April 6-8, 2009
Hyatt Regency Century Plaza

Business Exposition in the Exhibit Hall

Explore business opportunities with government agencies and prime contractors.

Keynote Luncheons

Hear invited Keynote Speakers who are small business advocates.

Matchmaking Forum

Pre-schedule one-on-one appointments with federal, state and local agencies, as well as prime contractors, that are specifically "looking for" your product or service offering.

Welcome and Networking Receptions

Meet and greet other conference attendees in a relaxed setting.

Workshops

Choose among 14 timely sessions designed to help small businesses find new government marketplace opportunities in challenging economic times.

Monday, April 6

Morning | Registration, exhibitor set-up and pre-conference training at no additional charge

Afternoon | Lunch on your own and Matchmaking Forum Day One

Evening | Exhibit Hall opens for Welcome Reception

Tuesday, April 7

Morning | Registration, Continental Breakfast in the Exhibit Hall, General Session and four concurrent workshops

Afternoon | Keynote Luncheon and Matchmaking Forum Day Two

Evening | Networking Reception

Wednesday, April 8

Morning | Registration, Exhibit Hall open, Small Business Town Hall and four concurrent workshops

Afternoon | Keynote Luncheon, four concurrent workshops and Large Business Summit

Agenda subject to change. Check the conference website for updates. For travel planning purposes, registration opens April 6 at 9:00 a.m. and the conference concludes April 8 at 4:30 p.m.

All small businesses welcome! Register at openingdoorscal.com

New this year!

Small Business Town Hall
Large Business Summit

Questions?

Call (213) 894-3210.

Conference Registration

All-inclusive attendee registration is offered at $140 through March 5. From March 6 through April 3, the fee is $150. On-site registration is available after April 3 for $195. Registration fee includes entrance to the Business Exposition, Continental Breakfast in the Exhibit Hall. Keynote Luncheons, general/plenary sessions, Matchmaking Forum, Welcome and Networking Receptions, and all workshops including pre-conference sessions.

Exhibitor packages are offered at $575 through March 5. From March 6 through April 3, the fee is $600. Exhibitor packages include one 8x10' exhibit space, one 6' draped table and two chairs and one all-inclusive attendee registration.

Official Business Only
Penalty for Private Use $300

Hotel Reservation

Hyatt Regency Century Plaza is offering a special rate of $128/night government and $159/night non-government for all conference attendees April 5-10, 2009 (based on availability). Call 1-800-233-1234 and refer to "GSAD" to reserve your room at the special rate.